

Mini Workshop on

Case-marking and Word Order in Turkic Languages:
A Comparative Perspective from Turkish and Urum

23. May 2014

Philosophikum, Room 219
Institute for German Language and Literature 1
Albertus-Magnus Platz 1
D-50923 Köln

The mini-workshop aims to bring together work in progress on how case-marking and word order interact in two Turkic languages, namely Turkish and Caucasian Urum. The focus will be on Differential Object Marking and the position of the direct objects.

Program

| | |
|---------------|---|
| 14:00 – 15:00 | Stefanie Böhm (Bielefeld) Differential Object Marking in Standard Turkish and Urum |
| 15:15 – 16:15 | Stavros Skopeteas (Bielefeld) Contact-induced change without replication: From OV to VO in Caucasian Urum |
| 16:30 – 17:30 | Umut Özge (Cologne) Differential Object Marking in Turkish and presuppositionality |
| 18:00 | Dinner |

Contact

Dr. Umut Özge
uoezge@uni-koeln.de